We use management methodologies and communication strategies that are used to successfully manage large teams with complex structures, problems, tasks. Simpolino breaks down this method to the family life and the needs of children.

We work with visual boards and offer

- 2. Exercises
that can be applied immediately and daily.
- 3. Management and Communication Strategies for various areas within your Family (e.g. Family Quality time, Homework battles, Tantrums, Self-care, teaching chores).

for long-lasting results and accountability

We base our exercises on agile methodologies, on mindfulness, non-violent communication, on embracing imperfections, empowerment instead of blame, humour, team spirit and proven concepts from experts on how to achieve happiness in families and visual storytelling.
